

Library Lecture Day Thinking outside the box/ library building

Friday 20th October 2023

Thinking outside the box/library building

The Library Lecture day is back!

This year we have a single day event under the title
“Thinking outside the box / library building”.

The library day on Friday October 20th will feature papers by:

Nicole Wreford

Librarian, Department of Biodiversity, Conservation & Attractions

Shane Dowling

Learning Communities Manager – Programs, Library
Manager – Ellenbrook

Laura Blake

Library Engagement and Communications Specialist,
Community and Library Services City of Swan

Danielle Degiorgio

Digital & Information Literacy Adviser, Library Services
Centre, Edith Cowan University

In addition, there will be a visit to the Monastery Library, where there will be an archives display along with some examples of New Norcia's rare and ancient books. The Abbey Press will be open too for visitors to see the old presses, fonts etc.

Costs

Friday's Library Lecture series $100

Concession (seniors & students) $85

Morning / afternoon teas and lunch included.

Accommodation

Accommodation in the Hostel, Guesthouse or Old Convent is $100 per room, which includes dinner.
